Exquisite Comics #5

Exquisite Comics is a game of 'exquisite corpse' in comic-book form. There are four players, eight panels, envelopes, stamps and a pile of imagination. The players exchange the part-completed panels with each other through the post, until all have contributed to each panel. None of them sees all the other panels in progress until the eight are complete. Finally, the panels are randomly assembled into an order that reveals (or otherwise) the previously unconscious storyline.

Exquisite Comics #5 was played by Chris Furby, Kate O'Leary, Dave Rice, Shelda-Jane Smith and Slim Smith
